

to the act to provide for a new assessment, and to appoint collectors of the county tax in and for the county and city of Baltimore, was made the order of the day for Friday next the twelfth instant.

On motion by Mr. Peach, the bill to repeal an act, entitled, An act to repeal certain acts of assembly relative to amerciaments, and to lay a tax on plaintiffs who may institute actions at law in the several county courts of this state, was made the order of the day for Thursday the twenty-fifth instant.

On motion by Mr. Stricker, the bill to establish pilots, and regulate their fees, was made the order of the day for Thursday the first day of February next.

Mr. Slemaker delivered the following report, which was read.

The committee to whom was referred the duty of examining and reporting upon a bill which originated in the senate, entitled, An act to revive and extend the provisions of an act, entitled, An act to provide for the appointment of commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Snow Hill, in Worcester county, and for other purposes, beg leave to report, that they have had the same under consideration, and think it ought to pass.

John P. Slemaker, Chairman.

And the bill therein mentioned was then also read a second time and passed.

The house adjourned until to morrow morning ten o'clock.

TUESDAY, January 9, 1827.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday. Mr. Lansdale, who had obtained leave of absence, appeared in the house. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill, entitled, An act relative to the public roads in Prince-George's county, passed this house last Saturday, was sent to the senate; and the bill, entitled, An act to revive and extend the provisions of an act, entitled, An act to provide for the appointment of commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Snow Hill, in Worcester county, and for other purposes, passed by and received from the senate, and which having yesterday been also passed by this house, was returned to the senate.

The Speaker laid before the house a report from the clerk of Kent county court, relative to the attendance of the judges of that court; which was referred to the standing committee on grievances and courts of justice. And also a report made in accordance with the directions of the 29th section of the act passed at the last session, to provide for the public instruction of youth in primary schools throughout this state, of the number of votes taken in Anne-Arundel county and the city of Annapolis, in favour of and against the establishment of primary schools, according to the provisions of said act; which was referred to the standing committee on public instruction.

Mr. Tidball presented petitions from sundry inhabitants of Washington county, on the subject of primary schools; which were referred to the standing committee on public instruction.